

Capability Statement

www.itdojo.com

IT Dojo equips Federal Government employees, Department of Defense personnel, and Government Contractors with the essential knowledge, skills, and abilities required for their mission-critical tasks. We deliver these competencies through:

- Instructor-led certification and skills-based training
- Custom course development
- Training program creation and management

IT Dojo offers flexible training delivery options to suit your needs. Our courses can be delivered as live, virtual sessions or on-site at your facility. Our experienced instructors have taught thousands of students, and we continually receive repeat business from many organizations.

Additionally, IT Dojo is equipped to offer hardware sales and kitting to federal government clients through strategic partnerships with the leading brands in technology related devices.
